<hr/>		Judge: Hon. Phyllis J. Hamilton

The U.S. Probation Officer filed a Form 12 Petition on December 16, 2013 alleging violations of supervised release against defendant Willie Mulder. He was released on December 30, 2013 but then on January 15, 2014 he was re-arrested on a new violation that was added to the petition. The Court set the case for January 29, 2014 for a bail hearing and status on resolution of the supervised release petition.

The defendant withdraws his request for a bail hearing. The parties require additional time to work out a resolution of the pending violation petition, and therefore request a two-week continuance. Both counsel are available to appear on February 12, 2014. The probation officer may be unavailable but has indicated that she will send a colleague to handle the hearing if she cannot attend.

The parties respectfully request that this Court issue an order vacating the hearing

1 currently set before this Court for January 29, 2014 on the supervised release matter and
2 continuing it for status to be heard on Wednesday, February 12, 2014 at 1:30 p.m. Mr.
3 Mulder is in custody.

_____)	Judge: Hon. Phyllis J. Hamilton

For the reasons stated in the stipulation filed by counsel, the Court finds that a continuance of the January 29, 2014 hearing on the supervised release violation petition pending against defendant Willie Mulder is warranted. That hearing is vacated, and the matter is hereby set before this Court for status hearing on February 12, 2014 at 1:30 p.m. for status or resolution of the pending supervised release violation petition.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
